A former player for Tours FC, Darius Kiedi Holemy has an in-depth understanding of sports, gained both on the field and through his professional relationships. His role at Akatsa will be to diversify and expand the agency's client portfolio while supporting the development of new strategic partnerships.

In collaboration with Jonathan N'Sondé, the agency's Sport Talent Manager, Darius will contribute to the growth of Akatsa's network and facilitate the integration of new talents into the structure.

Jonathan N'Sondé, who is responsible for representing Akatsa and promoting the agency's athletes, will be able to rely on Darius's expertise and network to optimize the identification and signing of new clients.

"Darius's arrival is a real asset for our agency. His vision of sports, his career, and his connections strengthen our positioning and our ability to meet the needs of our athletes and partners," says Jonathan N'Sondé.

Akatsa continues to establish itself as a key player in athlete image management by offering tailored support in image strategy, public relations, and career development.

Darius's work will complement this approach by helping the agency diversify and strengthen its network while opening up new opportunities for its clients.

We wish Darius great success in his new role at Akatsa!
